TRIBUNAL CUE CARD

CHECK EACH LINE Use ordinary language. Skip anything inaccurate. Do not add facts because they sound helpful.

THE FIVE QUESTIONS

1. What did I want? A simple haircut requested at a fictional neighbourhood salon in Toa Payoh.

2. What was I told? Madam Lim says the salon staff initially represented that a basic haircut would cost SGD 20.

3. What happened? Madam Lim, an elderly Mandarin-speaking consumer with limited English, visited a fictional Toa Payoh salon on 23 October 2025 for a simple haircut. She says staff first quoted SGD 20, but after the service charged SGD 100 for a package including a haircut, wash and treatment. She says she felt pressured and afraid. She returned on 24 October 2025 to request a full refund, but the parties did not reach agreement.

4. What did I do after? On 24 October 2025, Madam Lim returned to the salon and requested a refund; when no agreement was reached, she later made a police report, complained to CASE, and filed an SCT claim.

5. What do I want now? Order the respondent to refund the SGD 100 paid.
